CASE NO. TBD

DEFENDANTS SUNTRUST MORTGAGE, INC. AND BANK OF AMERICA N.A.'S
NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF ACTION

AKERMAN LLP
725 S. FIGUEROA STREET, SUITE 3800
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90017
TEL.: (213) 688-9500 - FAX: (213) 627-6342

I.
STATEMENT OF THE CASE

1. On October 29, 2013, Plaintiffs Bryan M. Pavalko and Monica L. Pavalko (collectively, plaintiffs) commenced a civil action in the Superior Court of California for the County of Orange styled Pavalko et al. v. SunTrust Mortgage, Inc. et al, Case No. 30-2013-00684366-CU-OR-CJC.

2. Plaintiffs' entire action, and all claims for relief therein, arise from and relate to a first-lien deed of trust (subject deed of trust) dated July 8, 2005, which secured a loan (subject loan) in the original principal amount of $648,000 and encumbered the parcel of real property commonly referred to as 8461 Clarkdale Drive, Huntington Beach, California 92646 (subject property). SunTrust and Bank of America's (collectively, defendants) request for judicial notice (RJN), Exhibit "1" at 1-3.

II.
FEDERAL DIVERSITY JURISDICTION

3. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 as it is a civil action between citizens of different states and as the matter in controversy exceeds the sum of $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

A. Complete Diversity of Citizenship

4. Federal courts have jurisdiction over diversity cases in order to ensure that citizens of different states can adjudicate their disputes in a neutral forum. See Bank of United States v. Devaux, 9 U.S. (5 Cranch) 61, 87 (1809) (Marshall, C. J.). For this reason, "[d]efendants may remove an action on the basis of diversity of citizenship if there is complete diversity between all named plaintiffs and all named defendants, and no defendant is a citizen of the forum State." Lincoln Property Co. v. Roche, 546 U.S. 81, 84 (2005).

5. Complete diversity of citizenship exists because plaintiffs are citizens of California, and both defendants are citizens of other states.

6. Plaintiffs are California citizens. "A person's domicile is her permanent home, where she resides with the intention to remain or to which she intends to return." Kanter v. Warner Lambert Co., 265 F.3d 853, 857 (9th Cir. 2001). "The courts have held that the determination of an individual's domicile involves a number of factors (no single factor controlling), including: current residence, voting registration and voting practices, location of personal and real property, location of brokerage and bank accounts, location of spouse and family, membership in unions and other organizations, place of employment or business, driver's license and automobile registration, and payment of taxes" (emphasis added). Lew v. Moss, 797 F.2d 747, 750 (9th Cir. 1986). Plaintiffs are citizens of California as they admit that they "reside in the County of Orange, State of California" and as they claim ownership in the subject property, which is located in California. Complaint ¶¶ 1 and 3.

7. SunTrust is a diverse defendant. "A corporation shall be deemed to be a citizen of any State by which it has been incorporated and of the State where it has its principal place of business." 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1). The Supreme Court held that "'principal place of business' is best read as referring to the place where a corporation's officers direct, control, and coordinate the corporation's activities. It is the place that Courts of Appeals have called the corporation's 'nerve center.' And in practice it should normally be the place where the corporation maintains its headquarters." Hertz Corporation v. Friend, 130 S.Ct. 1181, 1199 (2010). SunTrust is a citizen of Virginia as it is a Virginia corporation and as its headquarters are located in Richmond, Virginia. RJN, Ex. "2." Accordingly, SunTrust is not a citizen of California.

8. Bank of America is also a diverse defendant. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1348, as interpreted by the Supreme Court in Wachovia Bank v. Schmidt, 546 U.S. 303 (2006), "[t]he State in which the main office is located qualifies as the bank's 'home State' under the banking laws." Wachovia Bank, 546 U.S. at 307. As a result, Bank of America is a

1 citizen of North Carolina as its headquarters are located in Charlotte, North Carolina.
2 RJN, Ex. "3." Bank of America is not a citizen of California.

3 9. "The citizenship of defendants sued under fictitious names shall be
4 disregarded." 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b)(1). It does not appear that fictitiously named 5 defendants does 1 through 20 have been named or served, and their citizenship is 6 irrelevant for the purposes of this removal.

7 B. The Matter in Controversy is Satisfied

8 10. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a), the matter in controversy must exceed 9 $75,000. The amount in controversy here exceeds this statutory minimum as the 10 principal balance of the subject loan is $648,000 and as the subject property was last 11 sold for the purchase price of at least $378,000.¹ Complaint ¶ 40; RJN, Exs. "1" at 2, 12 "4," and "5" at 2.

13 11. Both the Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals have held 14 that "it is well established that the amount in controversy is measured by the value of 15 the object of the litigation" (emphasis added). Hunt v. Washington State Apple
16 Advertising Com'n, 432 U.S. 333, 347 (1977); Cohn v. Petsmart, Inc., 281 F.3d 837, 17 840 (9th Cir. 2002). In actions challenging the foreclosure of real property by the 18 lender pursuant to a borrower's default on a mortgage loan, the value of the object of 19 litigation is measured by either the value of the underlying loan or the value of the 20 property securing the loan. See Garfinkle v. Wells Fargo Bank, 483 F.2d 1074, 1076
21 (9th Cir. 1973); Cabriales v. Nationstar Loan Services, 2010 WL 761081 (N.D.Cal.
22 2010); Reyes v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 2010 WL 2629785 (N.D.Cal. 2010); Chapman
23 v. Deutsche Bank Nat. Trust Co., 651 F.3d 1039, 1045 FN2 (9th Cir. 2011).

24 12. In their lawsuit, plaintiffs pray for injunctive relief pursuant to California
25 Civil Code § 2924.12 to enjoin any trustee's sale of the subject property, and plaintiffs 26

27 ¹ The purchase price plaintiffs paid for the subject property in July 2002 equals the original principal
28 balance of plaintiffs' $378,000 purchase money loan. RJN, Exs. "4" and "5" at 2.

1 seek to "cease all foreclosure activity on the Subject Property" Complaint ¶ 74 and at 2 24. As such, plaintiffs' entire action arises from and relates to the subject loan and any
3 nonjudicial foreclosure proceedings on the subject property pursuant to their default.
4 The value of the object of litigation (i.e. the matter in controversy) is therefore properly
5 measured as either the unpaid principal balance of the $648,000 subject loan or the 6 $378,000² value of the subject property based on the purchase price plaintiffs paid.
7 Complaint ¶ 40; RJN, Exs. "1" at 2, "4," and "5" at 2. Both of these amounts exceed the 8 $75,000.00 jurisdictional minimum thereby satisfying the matter in controversy
9 requirement. Indisputably, the United States District Court has subject matter
10 jurisdiction over plaintiffs' action.

11 III.

12 ALL PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS FOR REMOVAL HAVE BEEN SATISFIED

13 13. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b), "[t]he notice of removal of a civil action or 14 proceeding shall be filed within thirty days after the receipt by the defendant...of a 15 copy of the initial pleading...or within thirty days after the service of summons upon 16 the defendant" (emphasis added). This thirty-day period begins to run from when the 17 removing defendant is served and not from when the first defendant is served. Destifino
18 v. Reiswig, 630 F.3d 952, 956 (9th Cir. 2011). Plaintiffs allege that they served both 19 defendants on October 30, 2013. RJN, Exs. "6" and "7." Defendants timely filed this 20 notice of removal within thirty days of plaintiffs' purported service.

21 14. True and accurate copies of the summons, complaint, and all process and 22 pleadings received by SunTrust are attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

23 15. Removal of this action to this Court is proper as the Orange County
24 Superior Court where this action commenced is located within this Court's jurisdiction.

26
27 ² The purchase price plaintiffs paid for the subject property in July 2002 equals the original principal
28 balance of plaintiffs' $378,000 purchase money loan. RJN, Exs. "4" and "5" at 2.

1 16. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), defendants shall promptly file a notice of 2 its removal of this action with the clerk of the Orange County Superior Court where this 3 action commenced, and defendants shall promptly serve plaintiffs and any parties who 4 have appeared with this notice of removal as well as the notice to be filed in the 5 California Superior Court.

 7 IV.
 8 CONCLUSION

9 17. By this notice of removal and the associated attachments, defendants do
 10 not waive any objections they may have as to service, jurisdiction or venue, or any 11 other defenses or objections they may have to this action. Defendants do not intend any 12 admission of fact, law or liability by this notice, and expressly reserve all defenses, 13 motions, and/or pleas. Defendants pray that plaintiffs' action be removed to the United 14 States District Court, that all further proceedings in the California Superior Court be 15 stayed, and that defendants receive all relief to which they are entitled.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs BRYAN M. PAVALKO and MONICA L. PAVALKO ("Plaintiffs"), by their attorney, for causes of action against Defendants, SUNTRUST MORTGAGE, INC. and BANK OF AMERICA, N.A., and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Defendants"), allege the following on information and belief:

I.

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs own the subject property located at 8461 Clarkdale Drive, Huntington Beach, CA
 92646 (the "Subject Property").
2. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants and DOES 1 to 100 based on the following:

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND EQUITABLE RELIEF

- a. Defendants' violations of California Civil Code §2923.6;
- b. Defendants' violation of California Business & Professions Code §17200 by engaging in unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business practices as part and parcel to unsafe and unsound banking procedures;
- c. Defendants' negligence in assessing Plaintiffs' loan for any and all foreclosure prevention alternatives, including a loan modification; and
- d. Unlawful billing practices.

II.

PARTIES

3. At all times mentioned herein, Plaintiffs BRYAN M. PAVALKO and MONICA L. PAVALKO are individuals who reside in the County of Orange, State of California.
4. Upon information and belief, Defendant SUNTRUST MORTGAGE, INC. ("SunTrust") is a business organization of unknown form doing business in the State of California.
5. Upon information and belief, Defendant BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. ("Bank of America") is a business organization of unknown form doing business in the State of California.
6. Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as DOES 1-100, inclusive, and therefore, sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs will seek leave of Court to amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities when they have been ascertained.
7. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon, allege that at all times mentioned in this complaint Defendants were the agents, servants, representatives, partners and/or employees of co-Defendants, and, by engaging in the actions mentioned below, were, unless otherwise alleged, acting within the course and scope of their authority as such agent, servant, representative, partner, and/or employee, with the permission and consent of co-Defendants.
8. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon, allege that each of said Defendants is, in some manner, legally responsible for the unlawful actions, unlawful policies, and unlawful practices hereinafter alleged, and that Plaintiffs' damages were proximately caused by Defendants. Plaintiffs will seek leave of Court to amend this Complaint to set forth the

1 appropriate charging allegations along with the true names and capacities of said Defendants
2 when they have been ascertained.

3 9. Any allegations about acts of any corporate or other business Defendants means that the 4 corporation or other business did the alleged acts through its officers, directors, employees,
5 agents, and/or representatives, while they were acting within the actual or ostensible scope of 6 their authority.

7 III.

8 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9 10. Venue and jurisdiction are proper in this Court because injury and damages to Plaintiffs
10 occurred in this jurisdictional area, and the Subject Property is located in this jurisdictional area.

11 11. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over the causes of action alleged in this Complaint
12 because this Court is a court of general subject-matter jurisdiction and is not otherwise excluded
13 from exercising subject-matter jurisdiction over said causes of action.

14 12. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because each Defendant resides in, is 15 incorporated in, has its main place of business in, and/or conducts business in the State of 16 California, and a substantial portion of the acts, omissions, events, and transactions constituting
17 the causes of action alleged herein occurred within the State of California. CCP § 410.10.

18 13. This Court is the appropriate venue for this action under Cal. Code of Civil Proc. §§ 395 &
19 395.5 because the acts that give rise to the causes of action alleged herein occurred in the 20 County of Orange, State of California, and the Subject Property is located in this county.
21 Plaintiffs hereby designate the County of Orange, State of California, as the place of proper 22 venue.

23 IV.

24 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

25 14. Plaintiffs hereby respectfully request a trial by jury on all appropriate issues raised in this 26 Complaint.

V.

THE CALIFORNIA HOMEOWNER'S BILL OF RIGHTS: Effective on January 1, 2013

15. Plaintiffs sue under several causes of action, among them, one (1) new statute in the California Homeowner's Bill of Rights ("HBOR"), effective on January 1, 2013: Civil Code §2923.6 (Defendants' evaluation of a Plaintiffs' loan for any and all foreclosure prevention alternatives, and obligatory additional evaluation based on a material change in Plaintiffs' financial circumstances).
16. California's housing crisis has had a devastating economic impact on the state and local governments. From 2007 to 2011 alone, there were over 900,000 completed foreclosure sales. In 2011, 38 of the top 100 hardest hit ZIP Codes in the nation were in California. All of this foreclosure activity has adversely affected property values and resulted in less money for schools, public safety, and other public services.
17. In addition, according to the Urban Institute, every foreclosure imposes significant costs on local governments, including an estimated nineteen thousand two hundred twenty-nine dollars ($19,229) in local government costs. The foreclosure crisis continues in California, and there remain more than two million "underwater" mortgages in California.
18. Legislative Intent. The legislature found and declared that it is essential to the economic health of California to mitigate the negative effects on the state and local economies and the housing market that are the result of continued foreclosures by modifying the foreclosure process to ensure that borrowers who may qualify for a foreclosure alternative are considered for, and have a meaningful opportunity to obtain, available loss mitigation options. These changes to California's foreclosure process are essential to ensure that the current crisis is not worsened by unnecessarily adding foreclosed properties to the market when an alternative to foreclosure may be available. Avoiding foreclosure, where possible, will help stabilize the state's housing market and avoid the substantial, corresponding negative effects of foreclosures on families, communities, and the state and local economy.
19. As a result, in February 2012, Attorney General Harris announced the California "Homeowner

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 Bill of Rights,” designed to protect homeowners from unfair practices by banks and mortgage
 2 companies and to help consumers and communities cope with the state’s urgent mortgage and
 3 foreclosure crisis. Attorney General Harris claims that “this legislation will make the mortgage
 4 and foreclosure process more fair and transparent, which will benefit homeowners, their 5 community, and the housing market as a whole.”

6 20. On July 11, 2012, California Governor Jerry Brown signed into law the HBOR (also known as 7 “AB 278” or “SB 900”), marking California as the first U.S. state to adopt into law the 8 residential mortgage foreclosure reform principles outlined in the February 2012 National
 9 Mortgage Settlement with the nation’s top five mortgage services. The HBOR makes changes
 10 to non-judicial foreclosure protocols for first lien residential mortgage loans.

11 21. The HBOR provides protections for borrowers and struggling homeowners by prohibiting a 12 series of inherently unfair bank practices that have needlessly forced thousands of homeowners
 13 into foreclosure. Essentially, this law ensures that qualified first mortgage borrowers are 14 afforded the right to explore any available alternative to foreclosure with their mortgage servicer
 15 before a California non-judicial foreclosure can commence and/or be completed through 16 foreclosure sale.

17 22. The HBOR offers borrowers the following protections:

- 18 a. Burden of Compliance on the “Mortgage Servicer:” The burden of compliance is 19 placed on the “mortgage servicer,” the person servicing the loan or is responsible for 20 interacting a borrower, either as the current owner of the note or as the owner’s agent;
- 21 b. Foreclosure Prevention Alternative: “Foreclosure prevention alternative” is broadly 22 defined as any available loss mitigation option, including first lien loan modification;
- 23 c. Disclosure: Mortgage servicers must include a disclosure in the borrower’s pre-Notice
 24 of Default outreach package that includes (i) a statement that the borrower may be 25 entitled to certain protections, and (ii) a statement informing the borrower of his/her 26 right to request a copy of his/her note and deed of trust, any assignment of the deed of 27 trust required to demonstrate the mortgage servicer’s right to foreclosure, and the 28 borrower’s payment history since he/she was last less than sixty (60) days past due;

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
 4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
 NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

- d. Notice of Default and Declaration of Compliance: A mortgage servicer, mortgagee, trustee, beneficiary or authorized agent MAY NOT record a Notice of Default until a disclosure (as described above) is sent to the borrower, AND thirty (30) days after either (i) initial contact is made, to assess the borrower's financial situation and explore options for foreclosure avoidance, OR (ii) the due diligence requirements for locating the borrower have been met with no borrower response. In addition, a declaration of compliance must be attached to the Notice of Default;
- e. Restriction on dual track foreclosure: Mortgage servicers are restricted from advancing the foreclosure process while a borrower is seeking a loan modification. When a borrower completes an application for a loan modification, the foreclosure process is essentially on-hold until the complete application has been reviewed;
- f. Guaranteed Single Point of Contact: Borrowers are guaranteed and provided one or more direct means of communication with their single point of contact, as they navigate the system and try to keep their homes - a person or team at the bank who know(s) the facts of their case, has their paperwork, and can get the borrowers a decision about their application for a loan modification;
- g. Restriction on "Robo-Signing:" The recording of "robodocs," or "robo-signing," the process through which banks approved fraudulently signed mortgage documents in the foreclosure process, is PROHIBITED. All mortgage documents, including notices of default and supporting declarations, notices of sale, assignments of deed of trust, and substitutions of trustee recorded in connection with a non-judicial foreclosure, as well as declarations filed in court with respect to any foreclosure proceeding, must be accurate, complete and supported by competent and relevant evidence;
- h. Restriction on Charges and Fees: Mortgage servicers may not charge any application, processing, or other fee for any first lien loan foreclosure prevention alternative, and while a foreclosure prevention alternative is being considered or denial is being appealed, a mortgage servicer cannot collect late fees;
- i. Private right of action: Borrowers are afforded the following private right of action:

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND EQUITABLE RELIEF

- i. Up until a foreclosure sale is completed, borrowers may seek a court injunction for a material violation of these protections, and may seek attorney's fees.
- ii. After a foreclosure sale is completed, borrowers can seek court recovery for actual damages suffered as a result of a material violation, that was not corrected prior to the foreclosure sale, plus attorney's fees, and, upon a court's finding of willful, reckless, and/or intentional material violations committed, borrowers can be awarded the greater of $50,000 civil money penalty or treble damages.

23. According to the California legislature, the Bill of Rights brings basic fairness, accountability, and transparency to the state's mortgage and foreclosure process, and it is necessary to provide stability to California's statewide and regional economies and housing market.

VI.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Defendants' Marked-Up and Unnecessary Fees for Default-Related Services

24. Plaintiffs allege, upon information and belief, that in Defendants' loan servicing operations, Defendants follow a strategy to generate fraudulently concealed default-related fee income. Rather than simply obtaining default-related services directly from independent third-party vendors, and charging borrowers for the actual cost of these services, Defendants assess borrowers' accounts for services that are unnecessary and they unlawfully add additional undisclosed profits on to the charges before they are assessed on borrowers' accounts.
25. Upon information and belief, Defendants' scheme works as follows: Defendants order default-related services from their subsidiaries and affiliated companies, who, in turn, obtain the services from third-party vendors. The third-party vendors charge Defendants for their services. Defendants, in turn, charge borrowers a fee that is significantly marked-up from the third-party vendors' actual fees for the services. As a result, even though the mortgage market has collapsed, and more and more borrowers are following into delinquency, Defendants continue to earn substantial profits by assessing undisclosed, marked-up fees for default-related services on borrowers' accounts.

NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 26. The mortgage contract between a lender and a borrower consists of two (2) documents: the 2 Promissory Note ("Note") and the Mortgage or Deed of Trust ("Security Instrument"). The 3 mortgage contracts serviced by Defendants are substantially similar because they conform to the 4 standard Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac form contract. These contracts contain form language
 5 regarding what occurs if borrowers default on their loans. The Security Instrument authorizes 6 the loan services, in the event of default, to:

7 pay for whatever is reasonable or appropriate to protect the note holder's
 8 interest in the property and rights under the security instrument, including 9 protecting and/or assessing the value of the property, and securing and/or repairing the property.

10 27. The Security Instrument further provides that any such amounts disbursed by the servicer shall 11 become additional debt of the borrower secured by the Security Instrument and shall bear
 12 interest at the Note rate from the date of disbursement. The Note provides that the note holder:

13 will have the right to be paid back by [the borrower] for all of its costs and 14 expenses in enforcing this Note to the extent not prohibited by applicable law. Those expenses include, for example, reasonable attorney's fees.

15 28. Thus, the mortgage contract allows the servicer to pay for default-related services when 16 necessary or appropriate, and to be reimbursed by the borrowers, but it does not authorize the 17 servicer to mark-up the actual cost of those services to make a profit.

18 29. As discussed above, by charging marked-up fees, Defendants violate their agreements with 19 borrowers because, among other things, charges that exceed the actual cost of the services
 20 provided are neither reasonable nor appropriate to protect the Note holder's interest in the 21 property and the rights under the Security Instrument.

22 30. Furthermore, the wrongful nature of the marked-up fees is demonstrated by the fact that
 23 Defendants do not disclose to borrowers that the fees assessed on their accounts are marked-up
 24 from the amount actually charged by the vendor.

25 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis, allege that Defendants conceal these 26 marked-up fees for default-related services on borrowers' accounts, including Plaintiffs', by 27 identifying the charges only as "Miscellaneous Fees," "Corporate Advances," "Other Fees" or 28

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
 4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
 NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 "Advances" on borrowers' statements.

2 32. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis, allege that under the "Miscellaneous
3 Fees," "Corporate Advances," "Other Fees" or "Advances" categories on borrowers' statements,
4 Defendants also assess unnecessary and unreasonable fees for property inspections. Although
5 such inspections purportedly are conducted to guard against property loss, Defendants' practices
6 are designed to ensure that these fees are charged to as many accounts as possible, even if the 7 inspections are inappropriate, unnecessary, or unreasonable.

8 33. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis, allege that even if the property inspections
9 were properly performed and actually reviewed by someone at the bank, Defendants'
10 continuous assessment of fees for these inspections on borrowers' accounts is still improper and 11 unreasonable because of the frequency with which they are performed. If the first inspection 12 report shows that the property is occupied and in good condition, it is unnecessary and 13 inappropriate for Defendants to automatically continue to order monthly inspections. Nothing 14 in the reports justifies continued monitoring.

15 34. As a result of Defendants' concealment of these unlawful fees, thousands of unsuspecting
16 borrowers, including Plaintiffs, are cheated out of millions of dollars.

17 Plaintiffs' Injuries as a Result of Defendants' Practices

18 35. Plaintiffs allege, upon information and belief, that the assessment of these marked-up fees can 19 make it impossible for borrowers to become current on their loan. Charges for default-related
20 services can add hundreds or thousands of dollars to borrowers' loans over time, driving them
21 further into default.

22 36. When borrowers, including Plaintiffs, get behind on their mortgage, and fees for these default-
23 related services are added on to the past-due principal and interest payments, Defendants'
24 practices make it increasingly difficult for borrowers to ever bring their loan current. Even if 25 borrowers pay the delinquent principal and interest payments, the marked-up fees for default-
26 related services ensure that borrowers stay in default. After paying delinquent principal and 27 interest, although the next payment comes in on time, often through automatic payment
28 deductions from borrowers' bank accounts, part of the payment is applied to the fees first, so

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 there is not enough to cover the entire monthly payment. This makes the payment late, creating
 2 a cascade of more fees and arrears, which keeps borrowers in delinquency. By the time
 3 borrowers are aware, Defendants are threatening to foreclose unless a huge payment is made,
 4 and the weight of these unnecessary fees drops borrowers into a financial abyss.

5 37. As a result of Defendants' practices, borrowers, including Plaintiffs, are forced to move deeper
 6 into default, and suffer damage to their credit scores. Defendants provide information about 7 borrowers' payment history to credit reporting companies, including whether they have been 8 late with a payment or missed any payments. By keeping borrowers in default with these 9 practices, Defendants affect whether borrowers can get a loan in the future, and what borrowers'
 10 interest rate will be on such loans.

11 38. Additionally, as a result of Defendants' practices, borrowers, including Plaintiffs, are 12 wrongfully driven into foreclosure.

13 Plaintiffs' Financial Struggle and Pursuit of Foreclosure Prevention Alternatives

14 39. The Subject Property is Plaintiffs' principal residence and is owner-occupied.

15 40. In 2005, Plaintiffs entered into a written loan agreement, and obtained a mortgage loan in the 16 amount of $648,000 (the "Loan"), secured by the Subject Property through a Deed of Trust
 17 (recorded July 18, 2005), then and now the principal residence of Plaintiffs.

18 41. The Corporate Assignment of the Deed of Trust recorded on May 31, 2013 identifies 19 Beneficiary as "Bank of America, N.A."

20 42. Plaintiffs performed dutifully under the Loan, as required, until 2012 when Plaintiff Monica
 21 Pavalko's interior designer business declined due to the economy in which she lost all her
 22 employees and had been struggling to make ends meet. In addition, Plaintiff Monica Pavalko
 23 was recently diagnosed with spinal stenosis in which surgery was necessary.

24 43. Thereafter on or around October 2012, Plaintiffs contacted SunTrust, the mortgage servicer, to 25 inquire about loan modification and avoid serious default on the loan obligation. Plaintiffs 26 explained that her business had declined and due to her recent diagnosis, it would be difficult to 27 maintain the mortgage payment. SunTrust, through its authorized representative, encouraged
 28 Plaintiffs to apply for a loan modification and indicated SunTrust would send her the paperwork

1 to start the process.

2 44. On or around October 26, 2012, Plaintiffs received a letter from SunTrust stating their Home
3 Preservation Client Representative was Gail Harris. Plaintiffs immediately contacted Gail Harris
4 via email and left numerous phone messages, however would not receive a response back.

5 45. Plaintiffs submitted a loan modification package via certified mail with all the requested
6 documents directly to Defendant SunTrust. On or around November 2012, Defendant SunTrust
7 confirmed receipt of the loan modification package and began the process.

8 46. Thereafter, on or around February 2013, Plaintiffs received their mortgage statement which 9 included a "repay escrow advance" that had not previously been on the mortgage statement.
10 Plaintiffs immediately contacted Defendant SunTrust and spoke with representative Jaime
11 Wallace who explained that an escrow was added to their account on or around December 3, 12 2012 during the loan modification review process. Plaintiffs were never advised this would 13 occur and never received prior notifications. Due to this added escrow account, Plaintiffs'
14 monthly loan payment increased by $1,429.41 which brought their monthly payments to 15 $5,210.97.

16 47. Plaintiffs then called Defendant SunTrust again and spoke to representative Rashon Vendable
17 and he stated "the escrow account should never have been added to their mortgage account."
18 Representative Rashon Vendable advised Plaintiffs to contact the escrow department to have the 19 escrow removed since they were never notified that it was being added and there was no loan
20 modification in place.

21 48. Plaintiffs then spoke to representative Gail Harris who did not have an explanation as to why the 22 escrow was added, however suggested that they submit a new request for a loan modification, in 23 which Plaintiffs immediately submitted with all the necessary financial information.

24 49. Due to this enormous increase in Plaintiffs' monthly mortgage payment, Plaintiffs began being
25 late, however continued to follow up throughout March 2013 to June 2013 with representative
26 Gail Harris for Defendant SunTrust and her supervisor Marya Simmons to check status of the 27 loan modification review.

28 50. On or around May 2013; Plaintiffs received an "annual escrow account statement" which showed a completely different monthly payment amount including the escrow.

51. Thereafter, on or around May 24, 2013, Plaintiffs were offered a Trial Payment Plan ("TPP") in the amount of $3,627.95 per month for three months to begin July 1, 2013.

52. Plaintiffs agreed to the TPP, and pursuant to the terms of the TPP, sent in their first TPP payment by the specified due date, and thereafter, timely made the required monthly payments for all three (3) months until September 2013.

Defendant SunTrust Failure to Fairly Evaluate Plaintiffs' Application and Plaintiffs'

Documented Material Change in Circumstances Under the Homeowner's Bill of Rights

53. Pursuant to Civil Code §2923.6(g), under HBOR, the mortgage servicer shall not be obligated to evaluate applications from borrowers who have already been evaluated or afforded a fair opportunity to be evaluated, unless there has been a material change in the borrower's financial circumstances since the date of the borrower's previous application and that change is documented by the borrower and submitted to the mortgage servicer.

54. As alleged herein, Plaintiffs have not been fairly evaluated for a loan modification, nor have they been afforded a fair opportunity to be evaluated and there has been a material change in Plaintiffs' financial circumstances, and that change has been documented and submitted to SunTrust, the mortgage servicer.

55. Had SunTrust not added an escrow account without notice to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs would not have accrued any delinquent amount which Defendant SunTrust was attempting to add onto the back end of the loan. Accordingly, Plaintiffs were never afforded a fair opportunity to be evaluated and was never fairly evaluated.

56. In addition, as set forth herein, Plaintiffs have experienced a material change in financial circumstances since the date of their previous application for a first lien loan modification. Specifically, Plaintiffs' household income has decreased due to having to take out a loan of $25,000 for their son's education and therefore having to allocate a portion of their income towards these additional expenses. Plaintiffs' attorney documented the change in financial circumstances and submitted it to Defendants SunTrust in a letter dated October 25, 2013. A true and correct copy of this letter to Defendants, along with the fax confirmation sheets, is

JOSEPH R. MANING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 attached and incorporated herein as Exhibit A. Defendants have failed to respond or otherwise
2 agree to evaluate Plaintiffs based on the documented material change.

3 57. At this time, Plaintiff is in possession of the Subject Property and no trustee's sale has occurred.
4 As a result, the instant action became necessary.

5 58. Plaintiffs have been unable to cure the default because of the substantial arrearages, which
6 include unnecessary fees added to the loan balance, and even after submitting and resubmitting
7 updated financial documents and complete loan modification applications at SunTrust's
8 direction, Plaintiffs have been unable to negotiate a mortgage payment that they can afford.

9 59. Plaintiffs' claims are simple: when large financial institutions promise to modify eligible loans
10 to prevent foreclosures and taxpaying homeowners live up to their end of the bargain,
11 homeowners expect that promise to be kept, especially when those large financial institutions
12 are acting under the guidance of a federal program specifically targeted at preventing 13 foreclosures.

14 60. Unbeknownst to Plaintiffs, Defendants, acting as lenders, mortgage servicers, trustees, and/or 15 beneficiaries, received, and continue to receive, a financial incentive on each loan modification
16 application a borrower submits. Because of this type of incentive, Defendants benefit from 17 allowing Plaintiffs' modification requests to become stale and advising Plaintiffs to re-apply for 18 a modification, rather than actually reviewing Plaintiffs' application.

19 61. Defendant SunTrust wrongfully delayed Plaintiffs' requests for a foreclosure prevention 20 alternative due to its own ineffective and unreasonably slow processing systems, the financial 21 incentives it received by asking Plaintiffs to submit multiple applications, and its failure to 22 properly train its representatives to comply with Suntrust's obligations to borrowers.

23 62. The foregoing acts and material omissions of the Defendants herein alleged were undertaken 24 willfully, persistently, intentionally, knowingly, and/or in gross or reckless disregard of 25 Plaintiffs' notice and disclosure rights.

26 63. Defendants, as employers of the authorized representatives who had contact with Plaintiffs, had 27 advanced knowledge of the unfitness of the employee representatives and employed such 28 representatives with a conscious disregard of the rights or safety of others, or authorized/ratified

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 the wrongful conduct for which the damages are awarded or was personally guilty of 2 oppression, fraud, or malice.

3 64. Defendants are corporate employers. As such, their officers, directors, and/or managing agents
 4 had advanced knowledge of the willful and despicable conduct herein alleged and ratified the 5 aforementioned acts of their authorized representatives and employees.

6 65. Plaintiffs have been harmed by Defendants' failure to provide accurate material disclosures and 7 notices such that Plaintiffs can cure any alleged default and extinguish the transaction by 8 operation of law.

9 66. Defendants are acting in concert to deprive Plaintiffs of their civil rights by attempting to take 10 the Subject Property without due process of law.

11 67. Plaintiffs are ready, willing and able to enter into a loss mitigation program that is affordable for 12 Plaintiffs and more profitable to Defendants than a foreclosure, and Plaintiffs are ready, willing 13 and able to make such payments at the times required of them by law.

14 VI.

15 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

16 VIOLATION OF CAL. CIV. CODE §2923.6

17 (AS TO ALL DEFENDANTS)

18 68. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above, as though fully set forth in 19 this cause of action.

20 69. The HBOR, including Civil Code §2923.6, applies only to mortgages or deeds of trust that are 21 secured by owner-occupied residential real property containing no more than four (4) dwelling
 22 units. For these purposes, "owner-occupied" means that the property is the principal residence
 23 of the borrower as indicated in loan documents. In this case, the Subject Property contains no
 24 more than four (4) dwelling units and is the principal residence of Plaintiffs, as indicated in the 25 loan documents.

26 70. Pursuant to Civil Code §2923.6(g), under HBOR, the mortgage servicer shall not be obligated to 27 evaluate applications from borrowers who have already been evaluated or afforded a fair
 28 opportunity to be evaluated for a first lien loan modification prior to January 1, 2013, or who

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
 4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
 NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 have been evaluated or afforded a fair opportunity to be evaluated consistent with the
 2 requirements of this section, unless there has been a material change in the borrower's
 3 financial circumstances since the date of the borrower's previous application and that
 4 change is documented by the borrower and submitted to the mortgage servicer.

5 71. Had SunTrust not added an escrow account without notice to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs would not 6 have accrued any delinquent amount which Defendant SunTrust was attempting to add onto the 7 back end of the loan. Accordingly, Plaintiffs were never afforded a fair opportunity to be 8 evaluated and was never fairly evaluated.

9 72. In addition, as set forth herein, Plaintiffs have experienced a material change in financial 10 circumstances since the date of their previous application for a first lien loan modification.
 11 Specifically, Plaintiffs' household income has decreased due to having to take out a loan of 12 $25,000 for their son's education and therefore having to allocate a portion of their income
 13 towards these additional expenses.

14 73. Plaintiffs' attorney documented the change in financial circumstances and submitted it to 15 Defendants SunTrust in a letter dated October 25, 2013. (Exhibit A.) Defendants have failed to 16 respond or otherwise agree to evaluate Plaintiffs based on the documented material change.

17 74. Pursuant to Civil Code §2923.6(g), SunTrust is obligated to evaluate Plaintiffs' application for 18 any and all foreclosure prevention alternatives, including, but not limited to, a loan
 19 modification, and Defendants must cease all foreclosure activity on the Subject Property.

20 75. In addition, the law prohibits "dual tracking" – a mortgage servicer, mortgagee, trustee,
 21 beneficiary, or authorized agent shall not record a notice of default or a notice of sale or conduct
 22 a trustee's sale while a "complete" first lien loan modification application is pending. Cal. Civ.
 23 Code §2923.6(c). Therefore, Defendants may not conduct a non-judicial foreclosure sale while 24 Plaintiffs' application is in review.

25 76. The intent of the California Legislature in enacting HBOR was to address the consequences of 26 the subprime mortgage crisis leading to declining real property values and historic levels of 27 foreclosure. Given the vast and devastating impact of the crisis, the objective of the Bill of 28 Rights was to make sure lenders, loan servicers, and their agents were communicating and

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
 4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
 NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 working with borrowers in default to assess the borrowers' financial situation and discuss
 2 foreclosure alternatives before a foreclosure is initiated by recording a notice of default. The
 3 intent of the legislature is clear and the requirements that it has imposed are by no means 4 arbitrary.

5 77. Defendants' failure to comply with Civil Code §2923.6 directly undermines the intent of the 6 statute. This failure to adhere to the statute renders it essentially meaningless and, if the statute
 7 is not enforced, it will serve to perpetuate a cycle that results in far too many homeowners being
 8 rendered helpless. As a result, Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for any and all statutory and/or 9 actual damages which have resulted from their conduct.

10 78. In addition, Plaintiffs have incurred costs associated with the foreclosure action since its 11 commencement, and Plaintiff seeks to be fairly evaluated for a foreclosure prevention
 12 alternative, pursuant to HBOR.

13 79. As a result of the above-described wrongful acts and omissions, Plaintiffs have been precluded
 14 from the rights granted borrowers by Civil Code §2923.6.

15 VII.

16 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

17 VIOLATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS CODE §17200

18 (AS TO ALL DEFENDANTS)

19 80. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above, as though fully set forth in 20 this cause of action.

21 81. Plaintiffs bring this action against Defendants pursuant to California Business and Professions
 22 Code §17200, et seq., referred to as the Unfair Competition Law (the "UCL").

23 82. California Business and Professions Code §17200 prohibits "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent
 24 business act or practice." For the reasons described herein, Defendants have engaged in unfair
 25 or fraudulent business acts or practices in violation of Bus. and Prof. Code §17200, et. seq.

26 83. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to California Bus. and Prof. Code §17200,
 27 et seq., specifically Bus. and Prof. Code §17203, which provides that any person who engages,
 28 has engaged, or proposes to engage in unfair competition may be enjoined in any court of

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
 4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
 NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

competent jurisdiction; and the court may make such orders or judgments, including the appointment of a receiver, as may be necessary to prevent the use or employment by any person of any practice which constitutes unfair competition, or as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any money or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of such unfair competition; and Bus. and Prof. Code §17204, which provides for actions for any relief pursuant to the Unfair Competition Law ("UCL") to be prosecuted exclusively in a court of competent jurisdiction by any board, officer, person, corporation or association, or by any person acting for the interests of itself, its members or the general public.

84. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants were lenders in the business of providing residential mortgages to the general public and were acting within the scope of that business with regard to the loan provided to Plaintiffs. Defendants have committed acts of unfair competition as proscribed by §17200 including the practices alleged herein against Plaintiffs.

85. Specifically, as fully set forth above, Defendants engaged in deceptive business practices with respect to mortgage loan servicing, foreclosure of residential properties and related matters by, among other things:

- a. Engaging in a pattern and practice of misrepresenting to borrowers, including Plaintiffs, the likelihood of qualifying for a loan modification or other work out option, and inducing borrowers to continue with the modification review process while knowing that no such permanent modification would be forthcoming despite assurances otherwise;
- b. Without complying with Civil Code §2923.6(g) by failing to fairly evaluate Plaintiffs' application, or afford Plaintiffs a fair opportunity to be evaluated, even after there has been a material change in Plaintiffs' financial circumstances, which was documented and submitted to the mortgage servicer;
- c. Instituting improper or premature foreclosure proceedings to generate unwarranted fees; and
- d. Concealing the true character, quality, and nature of their assessment of marked-up fees against Plaintiffs' account.

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 86. In addition, Bus. and Prof. Code §17200 prohibits any "fraudulent business act or practice."

2 Defendants' concealment of material facts, as set herein, was misleading and likely to deceive
3 the public within the meaning of this section. This concealment was made with knowledge of its 4 effect, and was done to induce Plaintiffs to pay the marked-up and/or unnecessary fees for 5 default-related services.

6 87. Moreover, in the course and conduct of its loan servicing and collection, Defendant SunTrust
7 omitted a true itemization that identifies the nature of each fee, and it failed to disclose the nature
8 of the charges and fees assessed. Defendant SunTrust concealed the fact that the category
9 identified as "Miscellaneous Fees" or "Other Charges" reflects marked-up and/or unnecessary
10 fees that were never incurred by Defendants. Relying on Defendants, Plaintiffs and members of 11 the general public believe they are obligated to pay the amounts specified in Defendants'
12 communications for default-related services.

13 88. Plaintiffs relied on their reasonable expectation that Defendants complied with the plain meaning
14 of the mortgage agreement, Notes, Security Instruments, court orders, and confirmed plans, and 15 as a result, Plaintiffs relied on Defendants' disclosures about the fees on their statements,
16 reasonably believing the "Other Charges," "Other Fees" or "Miscellaneous Fees" to be valid
17 charges that were not unlawfully marked-up and/or unnecessary. Indeed, to trick borrowers into 18 a sense of trust and to dissuade them from challenging Defendants' unlawful fee assessments,
19 Defendants conceal their scheme by telling borrowers, in statements and other documents, that 20 such fees are "allowed by borrowers' Note and Security Instrument," or that they are "in 21 accordance with the terms of your mortgage." Had the true nature of the fees been disclosed to 22 Plaintiffs, they would have been aware of the mark-ups and unnecessary nature of the fees, and 23 Plaintiffs would have disputed the charges, not paid them.

24 89. These violations were and remain to be a matter of Defendants' standard corporate policy, and 25 constitute a consistent pattern and practice of unlawful corporate behavior. Defendants' actions
26 are against public policy, as the legislature enacted the Homeowner's Bill of Rights and,
27 specifically, Civil Code §2923.6, as an emergency act, to slow the foreclosure process so that 28 foreclosure could be avoided.

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

- 1 90. Defendants' omissions of material facts, as hereinabove alleged, constitute "unlawful"
- 2 practice because they violate Title 18 United States Code §1341, §1343, and §1962, California
- 3 Civil Code §1572, §1573, §1709, §1710, and §1711, and the common law.
- 4 91. Defendants' acts and practices, as hereinabove alleged, constitute "unfair" business acts under
- 5 Bus. and Prof. Code §17200, et seq., in that said acts and practices offend public policy and are
- 6 substantially injurious to Plaintiffs and all consumers. Said acts and practices have no utility
- 7 whatsoever; much less sufficient utility to outweigh the substantial harm to Plaintiffs, other
- 8 consumers, and potential homeowners.
- 9 92. Defendants' acts and practices, as hereinabove alleged, constitute "fraudulent" business acts
- 10 under §17200 in that said acts and practices are likely to deceive the public and affected
- 11 consumers' legal rights and obligations. Defendants' acts, including, but not limited to, active
- 12 deception, falsifying documents, failing to deliver material documents, and concealment, may
- 13 preclude consumers from exercising rights to which they are entitled.
- 14 93. Defendants knew, or by the exercise of reasonable care, should have known, that the
- 15 representations by their representatives as herein alleged were violations of public policy, Civil
- 16 2923.6, and other common law.
- 17 94. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon, allege that the illegal acts of Defendants
- 18 are a serious threat to Plaintiffs because these acts have allowed, or will allow, Defendants to
- 19 wrongfully foreclose on the Subject Property, to transfer title to or interest in the Subject
- 20 Property, and to cause the imminent eviction of Plaintiffs from their home. Because of
- 21 Defendants' illegal actions, Plaintiffs will be forced out of their home. Such eviction will cause
- 22 Plaintiffs to suffer further immediate and irreparable injury, loss, and damage.
- 23 95. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful, unfair and fraudulent conduct alleged
- 24 herein, Plaintiffs are in imminent risk of losing her home. The imminent threat and risk of
- 25 foreclosure constitutes injury-in-fact because it is concrete and particularized as to the property
- 26 in question and initiation of foreclosure proceedings puts Plaintiffs' interest in their property
- 27 sufficiently in jeopardy to constitute injury under §17200.
- 28

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 96. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent conduct alleged
 2 herein, Plaintiffs has lost equity in the home. Defendants' charging of marked up and excess
 3 fees has resulted in damage to Plaintiffs' tangible interest in their property. This loss of equity,
 4 which should be credited back to Plaintiffs, constitutes a loss of money.

5 97. Due to Defendants' unlawful, unfair, and fraudulent business practices, Plaintiffs have suffered
 6 severe a substantial ascertainable loss, and therefore, Defendants should be enjoined from 7 continuing such practices pursuant to Business and Professions Code §17203 & §17204.

8 98. As a direct, proximate, and foreseeable result of the unlawful conduct of Defendants, their
 9 business acts or practices have caused injury to Plaintiffs; and Plaintiffs are entitled to relief,
 10 including full restitution and/or disgorgement of all revenues, earnings, profits, compensation,
 11 and benefits which may have been obtained by Defendants as a result of such business act or 12 practice.

13 99. In addition to the relief requested in the Prayer below, Plaintiffs seek the imposition of a
 14 constructive trust over, and restitution of, the monies collected and realized by Defendants.

15 VIII.

16 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

17 NEGLIGENCE

18 (AS TO ALL DEFENDANTS)

19 100. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above, as though fully set forth in 20 this cause of action.

21 101. At all times relevant herein, Defendants, acting as Plaintiffs' lender and servicer and beneficiary
 22 to Plaintiffs' loan, had a reasonable duty to exercise reasonable care and skill to maintain proper 23 and accurate loan records, and to discharge and fulfill the other incidents attendant to the 24 maintenance, accounting and servicing of loan records, including, but not limited to:

- 25 a. Keeping an accurate accounting of Plaintiffs' mortgage payments, credits, and debits;
- 26 b. Disclosing to Plaintiffs the status of any foreclosure actions taken by Defendants;
- 27 c. Refraining from taking any action against Plaintiffs that they did not have the legal
- 28 authority to do; and

d. Providing Plaintiffs with all relevant information regarding the Loan.

102. In addition, Defendant SunTrust stepped outside its conventional duties as a lender and servicer and assumed additional responsibilities when it undertook efforts to consider borrowers, including Plaintiffs, for loss mitigation options, including, but not limited to, loan modifications.

103. Those additional responsibilities include the proper implementation of available foreclosure prevention alternatives, and following the new duties found in the California Homeowner's Bill of Rights with its provision against dual track foreclosures, so that Plaintiffs would be properly and fairly evaluated for a suitable foreclosure prevention alternative, including, but not limited to, a loan modification.

104. Plaintiffs allege, on information and belief, that Defendants breached their duty of care and skill to Plaintiffs, in the servicing of Plaintiffs' loan by, among other things:

- a. Failing to fairly evaluate Plaintiffs' loan for an alternative to foreclosure, including a loan modification, even after a material change in the borrowers' financial circumstances has been documented and submitted to the mortgage servicer, pursuant to Civil Code §2923.6(g);
- b. Engaging in a pattern and practice of making promises to Plaintiffs that SunTrust representatives knew would not be honored;
- c. Sending Plaintiffs false and misleading advertisements misrepresenting the availability of options to save Plaintiffs' home and leading Plaintiffs to believe SunTrust would and could qualify Plaintiffs for a foreclosure prevention plan and avoid a trustee's sale all in a matter of days; and
- d. Failing to sufficiently train loss mitigation staff and failure to maintain adequate systems for tracking borrower documents and information that are relevant to foreclosure and loss mitigation, so that Plaintiffs could receive consistent and accurate information from one phone call to the next, and the like; and
- e. Wrongfully adding an escrow account without providing notice to Plaintiffs and failing to state the specific reasons as to why an escrow account was added.

105. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief, that as a result of Defendant SunTrust's negligence,

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.
4667 MACARTHUR BLVD., STE. 150
NEWPORT BEACH, CA 92660

1 Plaintiffs have suffered from (i) substantial arrearages, which include additional and
 2 unnecessary interest and fees; (ii) an adverse effect on their credit scores; (iii) a loss of the 3 equity in the home; and (iv) being precluded from their rights and protections under the 4 Homeowner's Bill of Rights.

5 106. Plaintiffs allege, on information and belief, that Plaintiffs' injury was a direct result of 6 Defendant SunTrust's negligent conduct, as Defendant's misrepresentations of the availability
 7 of obtaining a foreclosure prevention alternative was a significant factor in causing Plaintiffs'
 8 injuries.

9 107. Plaintiffs allege, on information and belief, that Defendant SunTrust is responsible for 10 Plaintiffs' injury due to the fact that Defendant benefited from denying Plaintiffs' requests for a 11 foreclosure prevention alternative and advising them to reapply.

12 108. Plaintiffs allege, on information and belief, that the policy of preventing future harm favors
 13 imposing a duty of care on an entity in Defendants' positions. In fact, this is evidenced by the 14 fact that the State of California, through legislation, has enacted the new Homeowner's Bill of 15 Rights, which became effective on January 1, 2013, in an effort to prevent future harm from 16 unnecessary and wrongful foreclosures.

17 109. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis, allege that had Defendant SunTrust used
 18 proper skill and care in the handling of Plaintiffs' matter, Plaintiffs would have had a fair
 19 opportunity to avoid foreclosure proceedings, and Plaintiffs would have been able to enter into a
 20 loan modification that was affordable for Plaintiffs and more profitable to Defendants than a 21 foreclosure.

22 110. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence and carelessness of Defendants and their 23 representatives as set forth above, Plaintiffs have suffered, and continues to suffer, general and 24 special damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

25 IX.

26 DEMAND FOR ACCOUNTING

27 111. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference all paragraphs above, as though fully set forth in 28 this cause of action.

1 112.The elements for a claim for accounting are: (i) a fiduciary relationship or other circumstances
2 appropriate to the remedy, and (ii) a balance due from to Defendant to Plaintiffs that can only be
3 ascertained by an accounting.

4 113.Defendants have held themselves out to be Plaintiffs' creditor and mortgage servicer. As a result
5 of this purported relationship with Plaintiffs, said Defendants have a duty to Plaintiffs to 6 properly account for payments made by Plaintiffs. A fiduciary relationship between the parties
7 is not required to state a cause of action for accounting. All that is required is that some 8 relationship exists that requires an accounting.

9 114.The mortgage contract between Defendants and Plaintiffs allow Defendants to pay for default-
10 related services when necessary or appropriate, and to be reimbursed by the borrowers, but it
11 does not authorize Defendants to mark-up the actual cost of those services to make a profit, nor 12 does it allow Defendants to incur unnecessary fees.

13 115.Nevertheless, it is alleged, on information and belief, that Defendants mark-up prices charged
14 by vendors and then, without disclosing the mark-up, assess borrowers' accounts for the higher,
15 marked-up fee, so Defendants can earn a profit.

16 116.Defendants are aware that it is improper to mark-up and/or assess unnecessary fees on 17 borrowers' accounts for default-related services. Therefore, Defendants fraudulently conceal 18 these fees on borrowers' accounts, omitting any information about Defendants' additional 19 profits, by identifying them on mortgage statements only as "Other Charges," "Other Fees,"
20 "Miscellaneous Fees" or "Corporate Advances."

21 117.Plaintiffs have made mortgage payments to Defendants on the subject Loan since 2005.
22 Plaintiffs have a reasonable good faith belief that the claimed arrearages include improper
23 excess charges and fees imposed by all Defendants without Plaintiffs' knowledge or consent,
24 which are not allowed by law. Therefore, these monies are due to be credited back to Plaintiffs 25 in full.

26 118.The actual amount of the arrearages on Plaintiffs' loan and the actual amount of money due
27 from Defendants to Plaintiffs, and vice versa, are unknown to Plaintiffs and cannot be 28 ascertained without an accounting of the receipts and disbursements of the aforementioned

JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR., ESQ.

1 transactions.

2 PRAYER

3 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against each Defendant, jointly and severally, as 4 follows:

- 5 1. For damages sustained by Plaintiffs due to Defendants' wrongful acts in excess of the 6 jurisdictional limits in an amount to be proven at trial;
- 7 2. Pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §17200, et seq., that all Defendants, their employees,
8 agents, representatives, successors, assigns, and all persons who act in concert with them, be
9 permanently enjoined from making any false or misleading statements or falsely reporting
10 negative credit to reporting agencies, and from selling the foreclosed property on an unlawfully 11 procured debt;
- 12 3. Pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §17200, et seq., that this Court make such orders or 13 judgments necessary to prevent the use or employment by any Defendant of any act which 14 violates §17200, et seq.; and to restore to any person in interest, any money or property, real or 15 personal, which may have been acquired by means of any such act;
- 16 4. For disgorgement of all monies acquired by Defendants by means of any act or practice 17 declared by this Court to be wrongful;
- 18 5. For interest on the sum at the rate of 10% per annum;
- 19 6. For punitive damages against Defendants due to their intentional and wrongful acts;
- 20 7. For all relief granted under California Civil Code §2924.12(b);
- 21 8. For reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit, as allowed by law, and all other relief granted 22 under Civil Code §2924.12(i);
- 23 9. For injunctive relief as set forth herein; and
- 24 10. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and appropriate.

Change In Circumstances Pursuant to Civil Code Section 2923.6
Cease and Desist from Continuing Further Foreclosure Activity

RE: Bryan M. Pavalko and Monica L. Pavalko
Loan Number: 0202021770

Dear Sir or Madam:

This office has been retained by Bryan M. Pavalko and Monica L. Pavalko with regard to real property, 8461 Clarkdale Dr., Huntington Beach, CA 92646, with Mortgage Servicer SunTrust Mortgage, Inc. ("SunTrust"). Attached as Exhibit A is the Letter of Authorization, signed by the borrowers, in our favor.

Pursuant to the 2013 California Homeowner's Bill of Rights, specifically Civil Code §2923.6, the mortgage servicer shall evaluate a borrower's application for a foreclosure prevention alternative if there has been a material change in the borrower's financial circumstances since the date of the borrower's previous application, and that change is documented and submitted to the mortgage servicer. In addition, the mortgage servicer, mortgagee, beneficiary, or authorized agent shall not record a notice of default or notice of sale, or conduct a trustee's sale, while the complete foreclosure prevention alternative application is pending.

Please be advised that the borrowers have had a material change in financial circumstances since their previous application for a foreclosure prevention alternative with servicer. Specifically, the borrowers' household income has decreased due to having to take out a loan of $25,000 for their son's education and therefore having to allocate a portion of their income towards these additional expenses.

Additionally, as required by Civil Code §2923.6, the borrowers previously documented and submitted their financial changes and made efforts to contact SunTrust to advise it of this material change in their financial circumstances; however, SunTrust failed to acknowledge this change in the borrowers' finances and has failed to fairly review the borrowers for any and all available foreclosure prevention alternatives, specifically, a loan modification.

SunTrust's failure to fairly evaluate the borrowers for any and all available foreclosure prevention alternatives and SunTrust's current failure to review the borrowers in light of their material change in financial circumstances are violations of the Homeowner's Bill of Rights, specifically California Civil Code §2923.6.

Pursuant to the provisions of Civil Code §2923.6, all foreclosure activity must continue to cease, and the borrower shall be evaluated for foreclosure prevention alternatives, including, but not limited to, a loan modification, due to the material change in their financial circumstances.

Violations of the "Homeowner's Bill of Rights" are subject to regulatory agency enforcement. Material violations are also deemed to be a violation of a California charter or lender license and subject to agency administrative enforcement that could jeopardize continued engagement in California lending/servicing business. [Civil Code §§ 2924.12(d), 2924.19(d).]

Please confirm that the borrower's application and request for any and all foreclosure prevention alternatives will be reviewed, that all foreclosure activity has been suspended, and advise our office by October 28, 2013 before 5:00 pm or this office will seek injunctive relief from the Court, under the California Homeowner's Bill of Rights.

I am employed in the City and County of Los Angeles, California. I am over the age of 18 and not a party to the within action. My business address is 725 South Figueroa Street, 38th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90017.

On November 27, 2013, I served the following documents

on the interested parties in this action by placing true copies thereof enclosed in sealed envelopes addressed as follows:

Attorney	Telephone/ Facsimile/Email	Party
Joseph R. Manning, Jr., Esq. THE LAW OFFICES OF JOSEPH R. MANNING, JR. 4667 MacArthur Blvd., Suite 150 Newport Beach, CA 92660	Tel (949) 200-8755 Fax (866) 843-8308	Attorneys for Plaintiffs BRYAN M. PAVALKO MONICA L. PAVALKO

- ☐ (MAIL) I placed the envelope for collection and mailing, following our ordinary business practices. I am readily familiar with this firm's practice for collecting and processing correspondence for mailing. On the same day that correspondence is placed for collection and mailing, it is deposited in the ordinary course of business with the United States Postal Service, in a sealed envelope with postage fully prepaid. I am a resident or employed in the county where the mailing occurred. The envelope or package was placed in the mail at Los Angeles, California.
- ☒ (OVERNIGHT DELIVERY) I deposited in a box or other facility regularly maintained by Federal Express, an express service carrier, or delivered to a courier or driver authorized by said express service carrier to receive documents, a true copy of the foregoing document in sealed envelopes or packages designated by the express service carrier, addressed as stated above, with fees for overnight delivery paid or provided for.
- ☐ (MESSENGER SERVICE) I served the documents by placing them in an envelope or package addressed to the persons at the addresses listed and provided them to a professional messenger service for service.
- ☐ (FACSIMILE) Based on an agreement of the parties to accept service by fax transmission, I faxed the documents to the persons at the fax numbers listed. No error was reported by the fax machine that I used. A copy of the record of the fax transmission, which I printed out, is attached.
- ☐ (E-MAIL or ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION) Based on a court order or an agreement of the parties to accept service by e-mail or electronic transmission, I caused the documents to be sent to the persons at the e-mail addresses listed. I did not receive, within a reasonable time after the transmission, any electronic message or other indication that the transmission was unsuccessful.
